Dear Col. Assoc. Prof. Laurian Gherman, PhD.,

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere appreciation for your efforts in fostering a shared security and defense culture among military institutions across Europe and for your consistent support of the International Air Force Semester project. I firmly believe that the productive cooperation between the European military institutions is crucial for establishing common educational standards and enhancing training in military education, in alignment with the standards of the European Union and NATO.

Please be kindly informed that the academic staff of the Polish Air Force University have gained valuable experience in the development and implementation of the International Air Force Semester through their involvement in this initiative.

In light of the new ongoing International Air Defence Semester project, I wish to express my strong interest in supporting and advancing this initiative. Therefore, to demonstrate our commitment, I would like to nominate Lt. Col. Daniel Michalski, Ph.D., as a Vice Chairman of this Line of Development (LoD-17). I believe that his current expertise in academic international relations and dedicated engagement will greatly contribute to this initiative.

Yours faithfully

Col. Assoc. Prof. Andrzej Truskowski, PhD,
